

Save the Date: A Decade of Open Humanities Data

The Journal of Open Humanities Data \(JOHD\) is turning 10! To mark this milestone, we're hosting a special online conference on Friday 26 September 2025: A Decade of Open Humanities Data.

This global event will feature lightning talks, thematic dialogues, and community discussions on the future of open humanities data, featuring JOHD authors and collaborators from around the world.

To make it easier for people across time zones to join, the event is structured into two sessions. You're welcome to attend one or both, depending on your schedule.

- Session 1 (ideal for participants in Asia-Pacific and Europe):
08:00–11:00 UTC / 09:00–12:00 BST / 16:00–19:00 China / 17:00–20:00 Japan / 18:00–21:00 Australia
- Session 2 (ideal for participants in Europe and the Americas):
15:00–18:00 UTC / 16:00–19:00 BST / 11:00–14:00 East US / 08:00–11:00 West US

The event will be recorded.
